

I become a:

National Director

when I have at least 3 assistant managers and at least 2,500,000 points in the month with the team

Assistant manager

when I have at least 3 regional directors and at least 750,000 points in the month with the team

Regional Director

when I have at least 3 regional manager and at least 250,000 points in the month with the team

Regional Manager

when I have at least 3 district directors and at least 81,000 points in the month with the team

District director

when I have at least 3 district managers and at least 27,000 points in the month with the team

District Manager

when I have at least 3 office managers and at least 9,000 points in the month with the team

Office Manager

when I have at least 3 group managers and at least 3,000 points in the month with the team

Group Manager

Indeed, you have generated everything like the adviser, 1000 sales points yourselves and have trained at least three partners to advisers.

Adviser

They have undertaken the same steps like the trainee, passed, indeed, in the meantime the written test and have generated 500 sales points.

Trainee

They sign up, hold contact with your Upline and take part in the trainings.